What is Sacred About Activism?

Jesse Jaeger

Over the next year UU Mass Action will be adapting a program started by our sister organization the UU Legislative Ministry of California call the Sacred Activist Leadership Training program to launch in the fall of 2014. As we prepare to bring this exciting program to Massachusetts Jesse will be talking about his own experience in finding the sacred while doing activism work and talking about how UU Congregations can get involved in this fulfilling and creative project.

“From the Hearth”

Introducing PUUB Theology...An Idea Whose Time Has Come

What is PUUB Theology?

It is a Unitarian Universalist (UU) spin on Pub Theology. (See below.)

What is Pub Theology?

“In a nutshell, it’s people sitting around a table, talking about issues of faith and philosophy, ethics and ideas over a beverage. It is a safe space, where people can be honest and open about topics of faith, ask any questions, and at the end of the night, know that it’s perfectly fine if we disagree with one another.” (Bryan Berghoef, author of Pub Theology 101: A Guide to Cultivating Meaningful Conversations at the Pub)

What will happen at a PUUB Theology event?

We will gather in the Sutherland Hall – our “pub” for the night – around tables (decorated to create some pub-like ambiance) and share food and conversation about “stuff that matters.” Questions to get the conversations started will be provided.

What’s the point?

To have fun! To get to know each other better! To have a chance to have some conversation about “stuff that matters” in a safe, welcoming, and relaxed environment. To learn from each other, and to grow in our own pursuit of truth and meaning. But mostly, once again, to have fun!

When?

Friday, October 18, 7:00 – 8:30
Friday, November 15, 7:00-8:30

This is a FREE event, open to all. Feel free to invite your friends and family!

BYOB

Non-alcoholic beverages and a light supper will be provided (or feel free to eat before you come!)

People of all ages are welcome – children, youth, and adults!

All that’s required is a willingness to engage – to whatever extent you are comfortable – in conversation.

See you in church! ~ Rev. Wendy

Report from the Board

We're Connected!

Thanks to "Le Minister", "Le Rat", "Le Plumber" (Acme Plumbing, #1 @ #2), the terrific response from the Congregation on "Sewership Sunday" and to the diligent efforts of Glen Frederick and the Building & Grounds Committee, both buildings are now connected to the Town Center Septic System. Some landscaping work remains at the Fellowship Building, but otherwise this project is completed.

A tip of the communal hat to all involved!

DRE Search to Commence

Melinda Green, our Interim Director of Religious Education, is entering into her second and final year of work with the church. Over the fall, Melinda will continue to work with the RE Committee and the Board to help us understand and better define the kind of program and DRE we want going forward. During the ensuing months, a job description will be developed and the Board will appoint a search committee. The search will commence in earnest in the spring of 2014, with the intent of engaging a new director before the end of the church year.

Board members are occasionally asked: "Why don't we just hire Melinda as our DRE?" There are two reasons. First, the Interim DRE position is exactly that. It is designed as a special position for the interim period between DRE's to help the church through the transition period. Much like an Interim Ministry, the position is filled with the knowledge and understanding of both parties that the Interim DRE will not be a candidate for the position at the end of the interim period. Second, Melinda's career objective is to serve as an Interim DRE. So serving as our settled DRE (or any other church's settled DRE) is not consistent with her current personal and professional goals.

Wendy's Sabbatical

Wendy's Sabbatical is scheduled to run from December through April. A brochure explaining more about the Sabbatical and what to expect will be distributed later this month.

For further information or questions on any of these topics, please contact me or any member of the Board.

About Jesse Jaeger, Oct. 13th Worship Leader

Jesse Jaeger joined UU Mass Action in 2011 after many years of activism and Unitarian Universalist organizing work. He got his start in activism as a Unitarian Universalist youth working on the environment and hunger/poverty issues. In college he hosted an environmental justice college radio show, worked on tenant rights campaigns, and founded an interfaith group that worked on hunger issues. Jesse spent 8 years working for the Unitarian Universalist Association in the offices of Young Adult and Campus Ministry and the Office of Youth Ministry. Jesse lives in Lynn Massachusetts with his wife and two kids and where he is involved with local social justice organizing work.

More about Wow! for Volunteers, Parents, and Everyone!

In this second Interim year, the members of RE Team (Stacie Green, Alicia McHugh, Kelley Taylor, and Laura Vilain) have done an amazing job co-creating an innovative program year tailored especially for the HUUC community. With many experiments underway simultaneously, we hope more information and context will help make sense of the coming year.

Spiritual and Relational

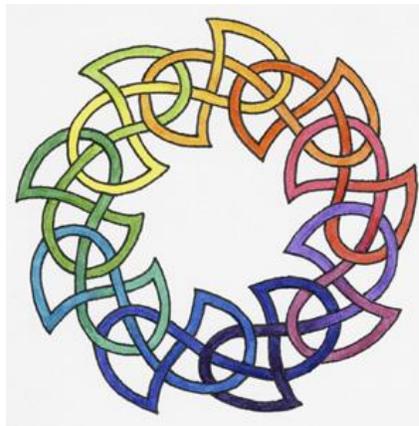

One of the main wishes expressed through the Wow! program is transforming the Sunday morning experience from instructional to Spiritual & Relational, and not just for the children, but for the adult volunteers, too!

Spiritual:

Ours is a faith tradition that derives energy for transformation by asking and exploring questions, seeking deeper connections, questioning assumptions, observing reality, and beholding new truths. This is what happens in the sanctuary for adults on Sunday mornings through the readings, music, rituals, and sermon. Generally speaking, Unitarian Universalist adults don't come to worship expecting the minister to provide a didactic experience that answers life's big questions in tidy packets. Instead, Unitarian Universalist adults commit themselves to "the free and responsible search for truth and meaning," and Sunday morning worship provides a context and framework in which to do so.

If questioning and free-thinking are two major components of Unitarian Universalist ways of engaging in life's biggest mysteries, why not create a context and framework in which they can explore big and mysterious questions in a free and responsible way? That is one of the main goals of Wow! - to provide weekly opportunities for children and adults to encounter questions in a setting where answers can and will vary, or are not required at all. One of the ways this year's program expresses that value is through a shift in the language about the role of adults. Rather than "teachers" who impart predetermined knowledge and wisdom for the children to absorb, this year we are experimenting with calling adult volunteers "guides," who participate in discovery and meaning-making processes with the children and other adults while keeping the group "on track" during their time together.

Relational:

Ours is also a faith tradition grounded in covenant, in "walking together," in the language of the earliest covenants. Today we might say that we believe we are better together than we are without each other, and that the work of spirituality is not done exclusively by individuals in isolation. Focusing on our interconnectedness as spiritual beings of all ages is another goal of this year's experimental programming, as expressed through regrouping the children into slightly larger groups that span more ages, including adult guides in the spiritual exploration process, and encouraging and supporting members of all ages to participate as guests.

It is our hope that adult volunteers discover there is profound holiness in nurturing the spiritual lives and growth of others, and that participants of all ages are transformed by encountering the sacred together.

Children and Youth Programming

Home-Grown Curriculum

Supported Co-creation

Grounded in the belief that just as home-grown and local foods feed our bodies, we wonder if home-grown, locally-sourced program content can nourish our spirits in ways that pre-packaged, processed curriculum cannot. Last year the Interim DRE adapted selections from existing curriculum and augmented them with original material, modeling one way to make a religious education program that fits a specific congregation. Building on this model, the RE Team, the Interim DRE, and the Block Guides will see what happens when they come together to create sessions as a collaborative team. Understanding that organizing curriculum is unfamiliar to many volunteers, the Interim DRE and RE Team are active participants in the process, collecting, curating and sharing resources, reviewing existing curriculum, and sharing ideas. Templates for block and session organization, and recurring rituals in each session help create continuity throughout the year.

Mirroring the Journey

By engaging in the curriculum assembly process, adult volunteers will also have direct experience with the year-long process the children are engaging in:

- 1) investigating a Big Question as individuals and as a group (Block 1: Nature)
- 2) making and communicating meaning of discoveries as individuals and as a group (Block 2: Patterns, Codes, & Symbols)
- 3) co-creating something new (Block 3: Creations & Inventions)
- 4) transcending individual selves through serving a greater good (Block 4: Heroes R Us)

The process also opens opportunities for adult volunteers to bring own questions, interests, skills & gifts, to both curriculum creation and to the time spent with the children. Engaging closely with themes, topics, books, art, and other activities allows volunteers to articulate and internalize the through-line/point of each session's activities: the "why" of each session. And engaging in creative activities with others opens opportunities for volunteers get to know each other better in the process of creating something new and functional. It is our hope that the process will result in sessions and blocks that make sense as cohesive, interconnected experiences, experiences that are both spiritual and relational. Wow!

We welcome you to the second interim year of Religious Education at Harvard Unitarian Universalist Church. Please keep asking questions and sharing reflections on the experiences of your children and yourselves. It is our heartfelt prayer that all our children have the opportunity to develop skills/tools grounded in spirituality to help them navigate complexity and thrive in accordance with their own potential. It is our hope that this innovative and ambitious program propels all participants to new spiritual growth and a stronger, deeper sense of interconnectedness.

Columbus Day B&B Weekend October 12, 13, &14, 2013 Fall is the best season of all on Martha's Vineyard. Just ask any year-rounder. The crowds are gone, the air is crisp, the water still plenty warm for a swim. It's an ideal time to visit. The Unitarian Universalist Society of Martha's Vineyard welcomes you to its annual Columbus Day B&B Weekend. Cost: $450 for a well-acquainted party of two; $250 for single.

What's Included: Rooms of course, plus daily breakfast (2 nights, 2 mornings), cocktails and seafood supper on Saturday evening followed by entertainment, a thorough orientation with maps, bus schedules, things going on to see and do, an optional Island tour on Sunday afternoon, transportation from ferry. • There is good public transportation and car, moped and bike rentals. If you do bring your car, be sure to make advance ferry reservations. For More Information and Reservations ... contact us at (508) 693-7083 or jhkobran@yahoo.com .

Here is the Alliance Program listing for the year. Please keep this list on your refrigerator, bulletin board, or whatever, for reference during the year. ALL (women and men) are welcome to these programs.

SHARING OUR PLATE October

Each month 50% of the cash contributions in the collection plate go to a designated charity (the balance of the cash and checks made out to the church go to the church). In October the charity is the UU Urban Ministry. Please make Sharing Our Plate checks payable to "Unitarian Universalist Urban Ministry."

Since 1834, the Unitarian Universalist Urban Ministry, through its alliances with over 45 Massachusetts congregations, provides ministry-at-large to the disadvantaged of Boston. For nearly 200 years, the UU Urban Ministry has been working side-by-side with Boston's urban communities to create opportunities and instill hope for a brighter future. The ministry concentrates primarily in out-of-school-time programming for at-risk youth and shelter for those fleeing domestic violence. They also operate a program focused on providing support for men in transition, including those involved with the criminal justice system. UU Urban Ministry is rooted in direct experience and service with those in Boston who are struggling for better lives. They seek to build bridges of understanding and mutuality so that people in various economic circumstances can work together to effect change, thus creating a human community that is peaceful and just. For more information, go to <http://www.uuum.org/>, or call 617-318-6010, or email rcrocker@uum.org.

The members of the Social Action Committee are Georgia Sassen, Dave Andrew, Chris Ready, Pat Westwater-Jong, Ibby Chiquoine. We meet once a month and welcome new members. Please contact any one of us for more information.

Reminder, Policy for The Belfry Submissions

Harvard Unitarian Universalist Church

Approved 6 May 2007

Purpose: To serve as the monthly church newsletter.

Submittal deadline: 9:00 a.m. the third Monday of the month, unless otherwise noted due to a Monday holiday.

Preapproved contents include (in order of priority): Congregational news, Clara Barton District news, UUA news, ad hoc news suggested by the minister, and non--UU announcements (for example, Habitat for Humanity). It also includes a message from the minister and Board president.

Alliance Program, October 1st.

Our first program for this year will be on Tuesday evening, October 1, with a pot luck supper at 6:30, program presentation at about 7:30, in the Charlanne Van Wormer Community Room of the Fellowship Building. We have lots of interesting programs planned for the year and welcome anyone (men and women) to come to any or all. You will find a list of the programs to the left, on page 6 of this Belfry.

For the first program of this fall we have a special guest speaker, our own Interim Director of Religious Education, Melinda Green. Her talk will be about a topic close to her heart--Voices of Incarceration: Inside a Prison Poetry Workshop. We look forward to seeing you there.

Rev. Wendy's Upcoming Sabbatical

Later this year, Rev. Wendy will start a five-month sabbatical. As many of you know we honor the recommended practice of offering our minister a chance to take a break every seven years and re-charge away from all congregational responsibilities. All the regular church activities continue, but are organized a bit differently.

In January the Board appointed a Sabbatical Planning Committee to work with Wendy in planning for her absence, as well as to oversee the sabbatical in process. We will provide you with complete information in September, but here are some basics:

The sabbatical is from December 1, 2013 – May 1, 2014;

The pulpit will be filled on the twenty-three Sundays, sometimes by ministers and other times by lay leaders;

A part-time "sabbatical minister" will be hired who will have regular weekly office hours, provide pastoral care, and preach several times; and

When you return from the summer break we will have all the details set.

Questions? Contact a member of the Sabbatical Planning Committee (Mary Ellen Miller, Steve Miller, Charles Redinger, and Betsy Williams, Chair)

*Here we support individual and collective service to the larger community ...
And here we respect the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.*

Sharing the Season's Bounty

The Glean Team is a wonderful group, based out of our church, whose mission is to ensure that everyone, especially those in need, have fresh, local produce available to eat. To that end, over the last few years, we have developed relationships with local farmers who call us when they have more food in their fields than they can sell. Once we receive that call, an email goes out to Glean Team members with the gleaning details and we organize a group to go out to help harvest. Then we deliver boxes of freshly picked produce to Loaves and Fishes, WHEAT, or Transitions at Devens (a shelter for women and children). Gleaning benefits the clients at the food pantries because oftentimes, fresh food is unavailable to them. But it also benefits the farmers who have put time and energy into growing the food and it benefits us because we get to be outside in beautiful places, getting exercise and spending time with friends. And perhaps more importantly, the Glean Team members and the farmers receive the satisfaction of knowing that we have helped our neighbors share in the bounty of the season. If you would like to join us in our mission, we'd love to have you. Contact Risa Goldman at risa-jan@aol.com and she will add you to our email list. We hope to see you in the fields!

Sharing Our Plate: September

Checks made out to Loaves & Fishes and 50% of the cash from the collection plate go to our local food pantry, which provides food, clothing, camper-ships and after-school enrichment scholarships, emergency shelter, resource referral, and other temporary services. Volunteer stewards and a trained mental health worker listen with understanding and empathy to the complex situations of clients and suggest actions to promote independence and increased self-reliance. Loaves & Fishes serves over 600 families in Ayer, Devens, Groton, Harvard, Littleton and Shirley.

Planning has begun for this year's Fair Trade Fair! The date of the event is Sunday, November 24. Anyone interested in being a member of the steering committee, please contact Paige O'Brien, paigeob@earthlink.net; 978-456-7980.

GPGP Fall Garden Installation – Volunteers needed

Growing Places Garden Project is one of our Sharing Our Plate recipients. They set up raised gardens in fall and spring for elderly or low-income families. They are starting to organize for the fall garden installations now and would like to know if we (HUUC) would like to participate. I am willing to organize a group of 5 to 7 volunteers to turn the supplied raw materials into 3 raised beds one late September morning or afternoon (day TBD) in Fitchburg. If you would like to participate, please e-mail me at daveandrew@charter.net or call 978-456-3858 before the end of August, so I can respond to GPGP. For more info on GPGP, check out their web site at www.growingplaces.org.

October 6th is Loaves and Fishes Sunday

The first Sunday of every month, the HUUC donates food and other necessities to Loaves and Fishes food pantry in Devens. One simple way to remember to donate to Loaves and Fishes is to add them to your weekly shopping list. When you stock up on sale items, buy a few extra for Loaves and Fishes. When you notice an item on sale for buy one, get one free, donate the item that you got free. When you have a coupon for an item you don't use, think about buying that item and donating it to a Loaves and Fishes family in need. If you have leftover dry goods or unopened food from vacation, don't leave them or toss them – donate them instead. Every donation finds a home and your thoughtfulness is much appreciated. Many of the groups in our area organize donation drives where everyone from that group donates the same item. The HUUC is doing the same so for Sunday, October 6th, please bring in cans of Hearty Soup and leave them in the Loaves and Fishes donation box in the church's foyer. If you have other items you would like to donate, Loaves and Fishes will gratefully accept those as well. Questions? Contact Risa Goldman at risajan@aol.com or anyone from the Social Action Committee.

Important Note from the Treasurer

We depend on pledge payments to provide the funds to keep our organization running. Your payment is tax-deductible no matter what month you send it and we could use it now. Please consider paying your pledge, in part or in full, at this time.

MUSIC NOTES

Musicians:

- September 22- Choir
September 29- Glenn Williams- clarinet
October 6- Choir
October 13- John Chapman, jazz pianist
October 20- Choir

Jr. Choir:

All first through sixth graders are invited to join the Jr. Choir for our first rehearsal of the year. We'll meet this Sunday, Sept. 22, from 11:20- 11:50 a.m. in the ee Cummings room. We'll sing songs for fun and about nature. I'm hoping that we will also meet on Sept. 29th for rehearsal, then sing at the October 6th Animal Blessing service. We will not meet on October 13, Columbus Day weekend.

Chimers:

I'd like to have a warm up rehearsal this Sunday, September 22 at 12 noon in the Belfry. We will not meet on Sept. 29th because of the Concert at the Common that afternoon.

I wonder if we still remember how to count to 4.

Sr. Choir:

We're back in the groove! All singers are welcome to rehearse this Thursday, Sept. 19 at 7:30 to prepare for the service on Sept. 22. We continue to rehearse alternate Thursdays- October 3, 17 and 31 (Halloween). Our Music Sunday has been changed to December 8.

A Note from the Treasurer, Bookkeeper and Parish Assistant

As we start a new church year we want to remind everyone that we want to be responsible stewards of the church's resources. In order to wisely use our financial resources, we further remind you that we are a tax exempt organization, which means we do not pay tax on our purchases. There are tax exempt forms in the church office. These should be shown to the vendor when making a purchase for the church. This is especially important when you buy online; please verify beforehand that your purchase will be tax exempt.. This usually requires contacting the business and asking their sales tax exempt department what process they require. We have business accounts at Staples and the UUA Bookstore; go through Elinor Stapleton or Weezie Potter. Amazon does not collect MA sales tax.

Going forward we plan not to reimburse you for sales tax.

Minister's Office Hours

I am in the office most Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons, sometimes into the early evening hours. You may call (office: 978-456-9021) or e-mail (RevWLBell@aol.com) to schedule an appointment during those times or to find another time that might work.
